

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Why do I have to submit an application?

A. We receive many informal requests. By submitting an application, we know you're serious about proceeding and that we should actively begin working on the details for your recipient needs.

Q. Why is there a handling fee?

A. Mission Outreach fundraises to cover the majority of our cost, but we do require that you cover a small portion to help offset our cost for trucking to collect equipment, packaging, inventory maintenance and storage.

Q. Why do I need to submit a feedback report?

A. Our donors who contribute dollars and products to support our mission want to know where their donations went. By providing feedback, it demonstrates the impact of their support so we continue receiving donations and allows us to make improvements in our mission.

Q. The organization requesting supplies and/or the organization receiving the supplies are not non-profits. Can we still apply?

A. Yes, but for the application to be approved and items released-you must clearly demonstrate how the items will be used for charitable care in your mission work.

Q. My organization is doing amazing work and the people being served have a great need, but we can't afford the fees. Can we still apply?

A. Yes you can still apply. In special cases, Mission Outreach will consider adjusting the fee for services for
